

Self Defence against Corruption and Fraud!

Let's do something about it!

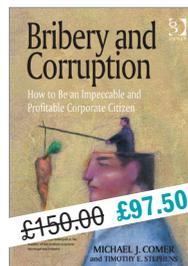

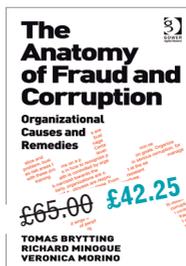

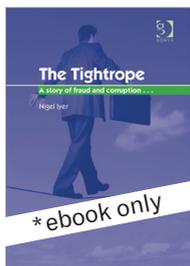

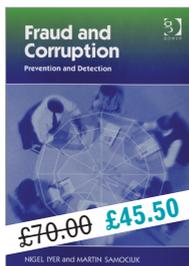

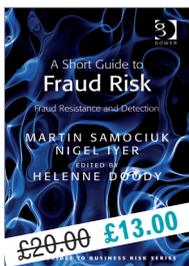

Words like “Corruption” and “Fraud” conjure up strong emotions. They can also mean slightly different things to each of us. But the simple facts are that whoever we are and wherever we work, corruption and fraud affects us. It drains the organisations where we work of money and other vital resources....resources which really should be put to much better use. So ask yourself the questions: have all the rules and regulations which have been brought in to combat fraud and corruption over the past decades, really made much impact? Is fraud and corruption still as rife as before in spite of all these rules or...(to put it bluntly) because of them? I can't say I have all the answers but I do believe it's time to challenge the status quo and find new ways to address what is an age-old phenomena.

Yours,

Nigel Iyer
